

MEDIA RELEASE

STORYTELLER ANTONIO SACRE AT EASTSIDE LIBRARY Bilingual Stories for Families on March 5

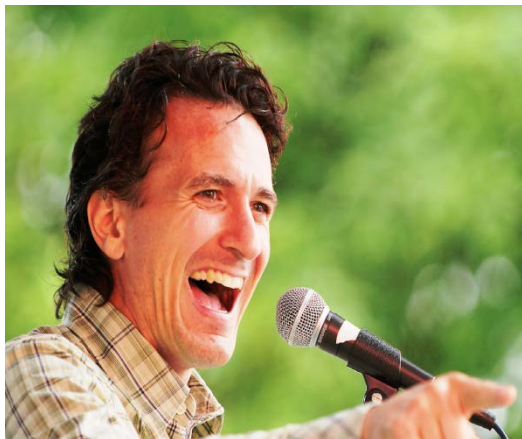

Santa Barbara, CA – February 25, 2013

Master storyteller Antonio Sacre was born in Boston to a Cuban father and an Irish-American mother. Mr. Sacre will bring his charismatic storytelling to the Eastside Library on Tuesday, March 5 at 1:00 p.m., drawing from his mixed heritage to captivate young audiences with fascinating and funny tales in Spanish and English. Families and children are invited to come to this free program at 1102 E. Montecito St. in Santa Barbara.

Mr. Sacre is a children's book author, storyteller, and solo performance artist based in Los Angeles. The "remarkable" (Village Voice), "hilariously honest" (Backstage) performer has been featured at the Library of Congress National Book Festival, the Kennedy Center, the National Storytelling Festival, and museums, schools, libraries and festivals internationally. He weaves Spanish and English artfully into lively folk tales, myths, and legends from around the world.

This program is sponsored by the University of California, Santa Barbara Arts and Lectures Program and Performing Arts and Educational Outreach Programs, and presented by the Santa Barbara Public Library System. For more information about this program visit the library system web site at SBPLibrary.org, or call the Eastside Library at 805-963-3727.
